

TUESDAY OCTOBER II. 1743.

Yesterday arriv'd the two Mails that were due from Flanders.

Genoa, September 24.

U R Government is more perplex'd than ever with the Conduct of the Malecontents in Corsica, tho' on what Account, remains an absolute Secret; for they not only forbear acquainting the Publick with any Thing that passes in that Island, but they take so much Care, under Pretence of purifying

Letters that come to private People, that, for some time past, no-body has heard any thing from thence. We conjecture, however, that considering the Terms that have been offer'd them, the Corsicans must be supported by some Foreign Potentate, or otherwise they would find it their Interest to be quiet.

Naples, September 25. Our last Advices from Messina are very favourable; they say, in short, that the Infection has totally cess'd; the Government, however, thinks fit to maintain the Lines thrown up for preventing any Communication either with Sicily, or Calabria, till such time as the Cities of Messina and Reggio are perfectly cleans'd; in order to which, his Majesty has engag'd the City of Venice to furnish him with a certain Number of Galley-Slaves to clean the Streets of the said Cities, upon Promise of a proportionable Recompence; upon which 200 have offer'd themselves as Volunteers.

Ferrara, September 28. Since the Arrival of Prince Lobkowitz, all the Austrian Troops have been in Motion; and upon our receiving an Account, that the Spaniards were advancing towards the Frontiers of this State, his Highness has order'd all the Officers to repair immediately to their Posts, and has caus'd 18 Charges of Powder and Ball to be deliver'd to every Foot Soldier; from whence we conclude, that they will speedily march to find out the Spaniards.

Vienne, October 2. Yesterday an Express arriv'd from Ingoldstadt, with Advice, that the French Garison in that Place were preparing to evacuate it, according to the Capitulation. According to private Letters from the Army on the Rhine, the following odd Accident happen'd there lately. As General Trenck was walking with some Officers by the Side of the River, he observ'd a French Centinel over against him; upon which, turning about to some Pandours who were behind him, he said, What shall I give one of you for the Head of that Frenchman? I will fetch it your Excellency, answer'd one of them, for a Couple of Ducats. The Bargain being made, the Fellow plung'd instantly into the River, and the Frenchman fired upon him as he came out on the other Side, but miss'd him; the Pandour had better Luck, for with a Pistol stuck in his Girth, he shot him dead, and return'd in a few Minutes with his Head to the General; who paid him his two Ducats, with which he thought himself well rewarded.

Ratisbon, October 7. According to the last Letters from Ingoldstadt, 300 Bavarian Foot march'd out on the 2d in the Morning, and immediately took the Road to Wemdingen; the next Morning march'd out the French Garison, consisting of 1700 Men, who, according to the Capitulation, are to be immediately escorted to the Alliance. General Berenclaus caus'd the City to be immediately occupied by the Regiments of Sarmay and Vencellus-Wahis; and on the 4th, being the Feast of St. Francis, and the Name-Day of the great Duke, he caus'd Te Deum to be perform'd in the Cathedral, with suitable Rejoicings. Our Traders are very desirous of sending up Boats laden with Merchandize to Ingoldstadt, in order to have as early a Share, as possible, in the reviving Trade of Bavaria, which promises prodigious Returns. Several Barks, laden with Furniture of vast Value, are gone down the River to Vienna.

Berlin, October 3. Yesterday Morning his Majesty arriv'd here from Potsdam, gave Audience before Noon to the Foreign Ministers, and then gave Orders for returning suddenly to Charlottenbourg; the Reason of which have not been able to divine. We learn from Potsdam, that the Czarina was not extremely well satisfied with the very fine Speech made by the French Ambassador on the Peace with Sweden, and the Election of the Duke of Holstein to the Succession; her Imperial Majesty directed the Vice-Chancellor of Russia to his Excellency, in Answer, That what he had said was very true, and that if these Events were pleasing to his Court, it would give her great Satisfaction.

Brussels, October 15. According to our last Account from the Army of the Allies, it appears they intend to go into Winter Quarters sooner than was expected; and that his Majesty of Great Britain would certainly make a Tour to Hanover, for a short Time, before his Return to London. According to our Advices from the Hague, the Journey lately made by the Abbe de la Ville to Amsterdam, occasions much Speculation, and no small Discontent; that Minister having spoke there in very indecent Terms, of the Measures of the Allies, and of their Success this Campaign. It appears, by a Line of Battle just published, that the Army under the Command of his Britannick Majesty, consists of 91 Squadrons, and 74 Battalions; and that their Artillery consists of 100 Pieces of Cannon, and four Haubitfers: They have with them likewise 66 Pontons.

To SMELL to, &c.
The Most Noble, Volatile SMELLING-BOTTLE
in the World, lately much improved.

WHICH smelled to, instantly relieves Persons in the most dismal fainting or swooning Fits, and in a Moment removes Fluxings, Vapours, Dumbness, Head-ach, Megrims, &c. It takes off all heavy Sleepiness, retards Swoonings, keeps up the Spirits to a Modest, and by its Use admits of no Fainting; but invigorates and enlivens the whole Man, recreates and makes chearful, tho' never so sad, and in a Moment raises all the Faculties.
It is also to be taken inwardly by Drops, which effectually takes off and eradicates the very Cause; for it powerfully relieves, comforts, and strengthens the Brain, creates and corroborates the Stomach, removes Sickness from it, helps Digestion, cleanses the Blood; and, in a Word, is the greatest Cephalick, Stomachick, Hepatick, and powerful Anodyne possible.

Whereas many Persons of both Sexes perform their Handkerchiefs with a few Drops of it, and find that in using it so, it is of singular Service in all the Cases above mentioned; and many Gentlemen, Ladies and Others use it after this Manner; purely because it gives a most fragrant and delicious Odour, that constantly both delights and refreshes the Senses, not only better than any thing of a musky Nature (which is really hurtful to most Constitutions); but it really takes off what such Things do occasion, and it relieves the Head and Brain from any ill Effects of cold Snuff, and instantly diverts from, and prevents the bad Consequences of any sudden, nauseous, offensive Smells; which is extremely necessary for all Gentlemen, Ladies, &c. who are to be carried in their Pockets.

Sold only at Mrs. Markham's Great Toy-shop, at the Blue Stars, now (since the late removal) directly over-against St. Dunstan's Church in Fleet-street, and at Mr. King's Picture-shop in the Poultry, near the Royal Exchange, at 2 s. 6 d. each.
